

S4/S5/S6 PRELIMS

28th JANUARY - 8th FEBRUARY 2019

- If you have completed your answer paper the Invigilator can let you leave early, depending on the length of the exam. Ensure you hand in all papers to the Invigilator before you leave.
- Pupils are expected to attend all classes when an exam is not taking place. Staff should allow pupils enough time to get to their exam.
- All pupils must continue to attend chapel in the mornings, unless their exam begins before 0850.
- Pupils must not be in the boarding houses during class times.
- During prelim week, students will only be allowed to revise for other subjects in classes, at the teacher's discretion.
- No results will be issued until the final exam has finished at lunchtime on the 8th February.
- Normal timetable will resume after the February break on Monday 18th February.
